R. Bradley “Brad” Beacham was awarded the Accolade for Interfraternal Service from Kappa Alpha Order national fraternity during its 76th Biennial Convention on Friday, July 31st, 2015, in Lexington, Virginia. This award recognizes individuals who have demonstrated outstanding service to the Greek or fraternity community.

Beacham is a 1990 graduate of Texas Christian University where he assisted with the creation of the Lambda Epsilon Chapter of Sigma Nu. Following graduation, he began work as an Educational Leadership Consultant for Sigma Nu. Brad now works as the Executive Director and Chief Staff Officer for Sigma Nu, a position he has held since 1997.

During his 20 years working with his fraternity, Brad has built an incredible legacy within the interfraternal community serving as the President of the Fraternity Executives Association, President of FIPG, and a founding member of the Collegiate Housing and Infrastructure Act coalition, among countless others.

Brad has been married to his wife, Jennifer, for 19 years and they have 4 children, Jackson, Addie Jay, Jud, and Mary Jude. His hobbies include TCU football and studying Texas and American History.

Kappa Alpha Order and its first chapter were founded 150 years ago upon the chivalric principles of gentlemanly conduct, with excellence as its aim, at what is now Washington & Lee University in Lexington, Virginia. Those values remain the focus of the Order today. Kappa Alpha Order has grown to 129 chapters in 27 states. Currently, there are near 7,800 undergraduate members, over 130,000 living initiated members, and well over 160,000 initiates in its history. More information about Kappa Alpha Order, and the Sesquicentennial, is available online, at www.KappaAlphaOrder.org.
