INTRODUCTION

It could be argued that new member education is the most important aspect of a chapters' operations. The education of your future officers, committee chairmen, committee members and general members will define your chapter over the next three to four years. You, the chosen New Member Educator, have a duty to your chapter and the Order to ensure the thorough and proper education of the men your chapter has invited to join. It is your responsibility to follow the rules and guidelines defined by the Kappa Alpha Laws, chapter bylaws and of your host university or college. This guide should aid you in your education of these new members and should provide you a roadmap for planning the education period.

It was the duty of every member of your chapter to investigate potential new members before extending them a bid of membership. As an Order, we look for individuals who previously possess the same qualities and ideals as ourselves. It is through recruitment that you examine a man's qualities to make a determination on whether he can become a valuable member to your chapter and to Kappa Alpha Order. It is also the duty of each member of the chapter to aid in the education of these men. The purpose of new member education is to educate young men on the manners, principles, history and traditions of both Kappa Alpha Order and the Greek community. From the very first public induction, new members are welcomed as brothers and should be treated accordingly throughout their education and preparation for initiation. As the new member educator, you are responsible for not only the education of the new members, but also their assimilation into the active chapter. Become their teacher, mentor, brother and friend. No man should use his power or privilege over another. Treat every member regardless of status with the same spirit of sincerity and respect.

INDUCTION CEREMONY

Following formal recruitment the first opportunity for us to show our commitment to making better students, citizens, fathers and men of our members is at the induction ceremony. The induction ceremony can be found in The Varlet, the Appendix of the Kappa Alpha Laws and at www.kappaalphorder.org. Our induction ceremony is public, and therefore, it is open to anyone who would like to attend. The following are tips for a successful induction of your new members:

- ❑ Schedule your induction ceremony well in advance and place it on your chapter's calendar.
- ❑ The induction ceremony should take place in a room or setting that is reverent in nature. Examples include: university chapel, a church, a Masonic lodge or a formal room in your chapter house.
- ❑ Invite:
 - Faculty and Staff members
 - All chapter advisors (Alumnus, Faculty and Greek)
 - Chapter and local Alumni
 - Province Commander and other volunteers of the Order in the area.
 - Parents, family members, and friends of inductees
- ❑ Materials needed for the ceremony:
 - Table
 - White table cloth
 - Kappa Alpha Order Flag (not to be used as a tablecloth)
 - Large vase
 - Crimson roses
 - Two tall candles
 - New Member Pins
 - Officer Jewels
 - 3 Varlets
- ❑ All members should be present and dressed appropriately in coat and tie.
- ❑ Immediately following induction is a great time for all new members to file Report 2 (Induction Report) online. If necessary bring them to a computer lab so they can all complete their goKA log in information and agreements simultaneously.

There are some key phrases/symbols that should be examined in the induction ceremony. It is the responsibility of the New Member Educator to examine and discuss the following with the active and new members following the induction ceremony at the next chapter meeting.

The reception of new brothers into our hearts.....

Text: “To us it represents the acquisition of new material for our brotherhood and the reception of new brothers into our hearts.”

Translation: From the very beginning, we call each New Member a brother and welcome them into our fraternity and our hearts. They should be treated as such.

The insignia of a new member....

Action: By bestowing upon each member awaiting initiation a public symbol (Member Awaiting Initiation Pin) we are confirming that they shall be held to our standards and principles.

Translation: The actions of New Members now reflect, positively or negatively, upon the chapter and Kappa Alpha Order as a whole. Therefore, each New Member should live up to the standards and values of Kappa Alpha.

Crimson Rose.....

Translation: This rose, and more importantly its color, symbolizes the bloodshed of the knights of old. While our bloodshed today is more metaphoric, we are challenged to continue to defend what is right and to battle both our enemies outwardly and within. It is the duty of every brother to aid our fellow brothers with attending class, eliminating alcohol misuse and abuse and drug abuse, cleaning up our language, and calming our jealousy, deceit or passions.

This is now your chapter and your fraternity....

This key phrase gives us insight into new member education. We decided to extend to them a bid and by doing so welcomed them into the Order. The decision was made for them to join our chapter when 100% of the chapter voted to extend them a bid. The purpose of new member education is to teach them the responsibilities of being a member of the Greek system and Kappa Alpha Order. We are not teaching them to be great pledges but rather great members. New member education lasts a maximum of 6 weeks, whereas active membership lasts 7 semesters. Hold new members to the same standards that your active members are held.

SCHOLARSHIP

New members enrolled in college to get an education. When planning new member education, social events, philanthropic events, intramurals and all the other aspects of the fraternity, keep this in mind. Scholarship should be the top priority. Each chapter should have a scholarship plan that details requirements for all members regardless of status. This scholarship plan should be included in the chapter bylaws.

Chapters often design specific scholarship programs to further assist the members awaiting initiation. This section details tips for creating an effective plan for those members. The plan should include:

1. Collection of class syllabi from all the new members. Use this information to make a master calendar of the new members' tests and paper due dates. This will allow you as the educator to schedule events around heavy test taking times, excuse new members with heavy workloads from Kappa Alpha activities so that they may study, and follow up and inquire about the new members' academic performance.
2. Ensure proper study habits for new members. For some of your new members, this is their first time away from home. That being said, having them develop good study habits and skills is vital to their success not only within Kappa Alpha Order, but in College as a whole. Resources such as tutoring services, study labs, writing centers, mentoring programs, and other academic advising facilities is an easy way to utilize free resources often provided by your local campus. The chapter's Faculty Advisor should also be included to develop a comprehensive Scholarship Plan that is full with incentives and deterrents to keep young men on focus during the school year.

Ideas for places to study:

- Campus library
- Campus computer lab
- Campus tutoring program
- Study group
- With other members of the chapter
- With big brother
- Writing center/lab on campus
- Chapter house
- Campus coffee shop

Be Creative on where Members Awaiting Initiation can study. Allow for them to set their own schedules, and have the scholarship chairman check in on them weekly to see how their progress is going. This is the time period where the focus should be placed on how to develop effective study habits, not sending them to a "detention" like study hall twice a week.

3. Have a speaker talk with the new members about time management and study skills. This should take place immediately after the pledging period starts (within the first or second week). Certainly the students you select have strong enough academic credentials to be able to attend your school; however, that does not mean they know how to study in a collegiate environment. By providing them information and techniques on these topics, you will ultimately be building a stronger chapter member. Speakers can be obtained free of charge from the school's academic advising office. Talk with your Greek Life Professional if you are still uncertain where to find a speaker.
4. Provide tutoring for the new members if needed. Not all schools provide the students with free tutoring services. If this is true at your school, see if the chapter can work out a way to help pay for at least some of the tutoring program for its members.
5. Incentivize academic achievement incentive for the new member with the highest semester GPA. These prizes could be free initiation fees, one semester's dues waived, a $10 gift certificate or plaque with his name on it. The idea is to reward strong academic performances and to encourage the new members to excel academically. If funds don't allow for monetary prizes to be given, use other incentives, like excused absences from required events. Utilize the chapter's big brother program to create a competition between big and little brother teams. Provide an award for the highest combined GPA.

INITIATION

The initiation date should be known by all members of the chapter at the beginning of each semester. A location should be reserved as soon as possible. The new member educator should work with the Number IX to find and reserve a location for a specific date that complies with the Kappa Alpha Laws. All members awaiting initiation should be informed of their initiation date upon accepting a bid. If a member awaiting initiation does not know his date of initiation, then he cannot plan to be in town and available for the ceremony.

SUPPLEMENT

The following is a checklist of items that need to be included in the chapter's New Member Supplement. Offered below are examples of how the materials should be compiled. When creating your own supplement, make sure that this checklist is completed.

Be sure to explore resources that can be used during your education as a supplement to the Varlet and other materials provided with each induction packet. This can be anything from print media to videos, books to lectures, guest speakers to internet based learning, case studies to team building activities. Remember that everyone learns differently and in order to keep everyone engaged, you must try out new ideas and methods of teaching.

Each new member should be given a supplement. This supplement should contain additional resources and items pertinent to a member awaiting initiation. This supplement should complement The Varlet, The Talisman, and To Manners Born To Manners Bred. This section of the manual will cover some of the materials that should be found in your supplement. Feel free to include additional materials that pertain to the development of your new members as college students and members of Kappa Alpha Order.

Welcome Letter

As the new member educator you should draft a letter welcoming the new members and their parents. It should include the goals you have for the education period. The letter should be mailed to the parents of each new member. Contact information for the chapter officers should be included in the letter.

Example:

There are many reasons for joining a fraternity – one benefit of fraternity membership is the opportunity to live and work together as a team and as brothers. This program is designed to guide you through the new member period and prepare you for initiation. Throughout the next six weeks, you will read and study about various topics such as:

- Chapter Operations
- Time Management
- Scholarship
- Personal Finance
- Professionalism and Etiquette
- History of Kappa Alpha and Our Chapter
- Kappa Alpha Laws, Chapter By-Laws and Parliamentary Procedure
- Brotherhood - Responsibility

We hope that you will enjoy the next several weeks as you learn about Kappa Alpha Order. Before you begin the new member program, it is important to familiarize yourself with some basic expectations of membership.

Regularly Scheduled Meetings

It will be important for you as a class to meet regularly during this educational period. Usually one or two meetings per week are expected. Meetings are a time to ask questions, work together, and accomplish goals. Remember these key tips to meetings, (the new member meetings should be reflective of the active chapter meetings in dress and decorum):

- ✓ Always be on time.
- ✓ Dress appropriately - This usually means khakis and a collared shirt. When people dress appropriately, they tend to have more productive meetings.
- ✓ Bring paper, pen, and a day planner to every meeting.
- ✓ Be prepared to discuss items designated for that particular meeting. Use a syllabus to inform new members on what is to be covered.

Below is a space for you to fill in the day, time and location of your new member meetings. Fill in this information now:

DAY	TIME	LOCATION
-----	------	----------

Academic Responsibility

As you know, the first priority while in school is to earn good grades. Kappa Alpha takes academic responsibility very seriously. Resources you may consider are:

- Academic services on campus
- The chapter's faculty advisor
- Campus tutoring services
- Study groups

Our chapter offers additional help with scholarship as well. We have assigned study hall and will provide tutors for members who need extra help with classes. Again scholarship is something our chapter takes very seriously. If at any time during the next six weeks you need help with school or extra time to study please come and see someone on the New Member Education Committee.

Social Events

One benefit of the college experience is the social opportunities that fraternity membership provides. These events are often called swaps, mixers, exchanges, and various other names. These are great opportunities for members to meet members of sororities and other fraternities on campus. After all, Kappa Alpha is part of a larger fraternal system and it is important that members get to know all of their peers. Remember that you are a Kappa Alpha and KAs are known as the gentlemen of the fraternity world...always. If your chapter has some upcoming social events, make sure you record those events in your day planner.

Intramurals

There are many intramural activities that Kappa Alphas participate in. This is a great time of brotherhood for the chapter. All new members are encouraged to participate. Record which sports your chapter participates in and how new members can become involved.

Calendar

A monthly calendar should be provided that has certain activities filled in and space for new members to write additional activities. It should include:

- Exam schedules (Mid-Terms, Finals, etc)
- Academic Add/Drop Dates
- Class Registration
- University Sponsored Speakers/Presentations
- Academic/Holiday Breaks
- Induction
- Initiation
- Weekly Meetings
- Philanthropic Events
- Chapter Social Events
- Brotherhood Events (Including the New Member Retreat)
- Deadline for Dues and other Fees to be paid
- Intramurals (If Available)
- Other Chapter-Specific Events

Recruitment

Recruitment is the lifeblood of Kappa Alpha. Hundreds of young men join Kappa Alpha Order every year, and now is the time for you to help in this process. Since your class is new to the Order, you are the most familiar with the benefits of joining a fraternity. You can help the chapter in its recruitment by listing five people you know on campus or in high school (that may be coming to school here). Write their addresses and phone numbers on a sheet of paper and give them to your recruitment chairman.

Campus Activities

As Kappa Alphas, it is our responsibility and duty to be leaders among men - in our chapter, on our campus, and in our communities. Membership in other campus organizations will help to broaden your horizons in the campus community, develop leadership abilities, and promote the ideals of Kappa Alpha. Each new member is expected to join at least one other campus organization. Locate a list of the organizations on your campus from the material the school provided to you when you registered.

❑ Financial Obligations

Along with the benefits of fraternity membership come financial responsibilities. Fraternity men are unique in that we are “paying volunteers.” As a new member, you should have already paid your induction fee to the National Administrative Office. Prior to initiation, there will be an initiation fee due. These are one-time fees that cover the administrative and personal costs associated with lifetime membership in Kappa Alpha Order. Your initiation fee covers the cost of your badge, shingle and services from National Administrative Office while an undergraduate. Chapter dues and fees are a necessary part of fraternity life. Without them, the chapter would cease to exist. In Kappa Alpha, as in life, it is very important that every member keep current with his financial obligations to the chapter and the Order. Record the financial responsibilities of membership in the spaces provided below and make certain to fill out your OmegaFi membership contract.

FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITIES OF MEMBERSHIP

❑ Philanthropy Event

Before initiation, the new member class will be required to complete a philanthropy project as a class. Whether this project is raising money for MDA, Independence Fund, or working for the local soup kitchen, the new member class must complete at least one event. Time has been built into your schedule to accomplish this goal. There are plenty of activities for you to do as a new member class; find something that is fun and meaningful. Community service is an important part of membership in Kappa Alpha, whether you're a new member, active, or an alumnus. Each year, members of Kappa Alpha donate thousands of hours and hundreds of thousands of dollars to local and national charities.

BIG BROTHER PROGRAM

Think of all the mentors one has throughout life. In the early stages of life, this perhaps was a parent, sibling, grandparent, teacher, or maybe even a close friend. A big brother program is a fraternity's opportunity for each new member to have a mentor or a role model within your chapter. A little brother should develop a similar relationship with his big brother by studying his habits as a member of the chapter. A chapter big brother program is something that should be defined and well explained to the members of the chapter and the new members.

Choosing a Big Brother:

- ❑ Set requirements to be eligible to become a big brother.

New Member Educator

Number I

(Example Big Brother Ceremony)

This ceremony should be performed in a sanctuary, chapter room or other dignified place. The ceremony should begin with the lights dimmed. All members should be in attendance and dressed appropriately. All officers should adorn their jewels and stand behind the Number I, New Member Educator and alumnus who are positioned at the front of the room. The member(s) awaiting initiation should be kneeling (on pillows or other padding before the Number I, New Member Educator, alumnus and other officers of the chapter.) A bible should be placed on an alter or table and opened to Titus 1:7-9 with a crimson rose and or white magnolia placed over it. The big brother of each member awaiting initiation should be standing directly behind him. Each remaining active member should stand behind his little brother (who is an active member) if possible. All remaining members should fill in behind the members awaiting initiation or should be seated in chairs or pews behind the members awaiting initiation.

Number I: Squires, we knights of Kappa Alpha Order are gathered here as members of (insert chapter name) for the purpose of continuing your development as a knight and gentleman of our beloved Order. From the book of Romans; Love must be sincere. Hate what is evil; cling to what is good. Be devoted to one another in brotherly love. Honor one another above yourselves.

Alumnus: Since our inception brothers have been taught by brothers. Our friends and peers have also been our mentors and champions. Tonight you shall learn the identity of the knight who has been chosen to lead you on your journey from squire to knighthood. A squire learned to become a knight by diligent study of the actions and words of the knight to whom he had been assigned. This too shall be your charge, to study and learn from your fellow brothers and knights and to seek guidance from the one to whom you have been assigned.

New Member Educator: When you accepted the badge of member awaiting initiation you made a public affirmation of your acceptance to become a member of our Order. Each time you place that symbol upon your breast you re-affirm your commitment to lead a life consistent with our fine ideals of character and achievement. On that same eve you began your education that will conclude with your initiation into our Order placing you among the elite men you have come before you. I have been chosen as your educator, but your education is the duty of every member and knight of Kappa Alpha. Learn from their courage, character and leadership. Ignore not their faults as those too shall serve as lessons on your journey to becoming a complete knight.

Alumnus: Since an overseer is entrusted with God's work, he must be blameless—not overbearing, not quick-tempered, not given to drunkenness, not violent, not pursuing dishonest gain. Rather he must be hospitable, one who loves what is good, who is self-controlled, upright, holy and disciplined. He must hold firmly to the trustworthy message as it has been taught, so that he can encourage others by sound doctrine and refute those who oppose it. Knights hold this passage close to your hearts and minds, let it guide you as you seek to guide these squires in the path of virtue.

New Member Educator: Excellence is our aim and applies to all aspects of life. You chose an institution of higher education prior to entering the next phase of your life. It is therefore your duty to apply yourself through study to achieve excellence in the classroom. Likewise, you chose to become a member of our Order it is therefore your duty to apply yourself throughout your education and more importantly throughout your life to our high ideals and principles which lead to excellence of mind and soul.

Number I: Brother knights, some of you have been chosen to mentor a squire on his path to knighthood. I charge you to make a commitment to that squire and this brotherhood to be diligent in your teachings and just in your guidance. Raise your right hand a repeat after me; (only the brothers who are becoming a big brother will respond) I do solemnly promise to be mindful of my actions... of my words...and of my responsibilities to this squire...I will seek to guide him on the path of righteousness...and am committed to staying by his side until initiation...and throughout life.

New Member Educator: Brother squires, you have chosen Kappa Alpha Order as your fraternity, brotherhood and family. The identity of the knight chosen to guide you is about to be revealed. Raise your right hand and repeat after me; I do solemnly promise to be mindful of my actions...of my words...and of my responsibilities to this Order...I will go to my knight for guidance and wisdom...and will receive kindly advice given...I will be earnest with him and share my thoughts...I reaffirm my commitment to labor diligently to become eligible for initiation...and a good knight from this day until my last.

Number I: Brother squires rise and greet your brother knight (each member awaiting initiation should stand and turn towards his big brother to be greeted appropriately, the lights of the room should be raised and the other members applaud).

(Additional Example Big Brother Ceremony)

Number I: Now that your induction is complete, it is important for you to begin your journey towards knighthood: a journey that will be forever life changing. Before beginning your journey, you must know where you are going and from whence you came; for Kappa Alpha is not merely a fraternity, but an Order. A fraternity is a group of persons associated together for some common purpose; the fulfillment together of mutual interest in time to come. An Order is a society of persons united together by mutual distinction; the recognition of something previously acquired.... Kappa Alpha is an Order of college men who possess the qualities of a gentleman.

To aid you throughout your journey, a brother Knight will assist you and counsel you in times of need.

Number II: The knight and squire relationship is one built on trust and brotherhood. You should be kindly affectionate to one another with brotherly love; in honor preferring each other; and of the same mind. Be not wise in your own conceits. Repay to no man evil for evil. Provide things honest in the sight of all men (Romans 12). True brotherhood is built on trust - trust that must be earned. Not through words of praise or gifts of worldly treasures, but through honesty, respect and gentlemanly conduct. Once a squire has received the gift of trust, he will find there is no gift that will ever reward him as much.

Number III: Squires who wish to enter the Order of Chivalry, beware what you do. For if you are a knight, you are receiving the honor and service due to true friends of chivalry. Just as you are honored with knighthood, by that same token you are more bound to be good and pleasing to God and also to the people. And if you act wickedly, you make yourself into an enemy of chivalry and behave contrary to its laws and rites (The Book of the Order of Chivalry).

Number I: Brother squires, a brother knight has chosen to guide each of you throughout your journey and to assist you in time of trouble and celebration. As your name is called, please step forward to receive your brother keeper.

At this point, all new members step forward with his big brother facing him. He is presented with the Book of the Order of Chivalry and a golden rose and says the portion dubbed: Brother Knight (this may be written on a note card if needed).

Number IX: Brother, the rule and Order of Chivalry is written in this book held in my brothers' hands here; I read and meditate sometimes on it in order to recall and savor the grace and favor that God has given me in this world as a reward for my having honored and defended with all my strength the Order of Chivalry. For just as chivalry leads to a knight his entire identity, so ought he to give all of his strength for the honor of chivalry (The Book of the Order of Chivalry).

Brother Knight: I also present the golden rose, as its color reflects the treasures of man, so too do I hope you find treasure in your membership in the Order of Knights.

Number I: Brother squires, welcome into our brotherhood and may your journey be filled with excitement and reward.

POSITIVE PRE-INITIATION ACTIVITIES

The Kappa Alpha Order initiation ceremony should be one of the most memorable fraternity moments. Your entire new member education period should be consistent with our values, teachings and beliefs to prepare your members awaiting initiation to be formally received into our brotherhood through this sacred ceremony. Just as the first several weeks of education should be valuable so should the pre-initiation activities. Do not overwhelm new members with too many activities. You want each of them to be well rested to absorb as much of the initiation ceremony as possible. These activities should not take away from any academic responsibilities, as often the new member education period concludes late in the semester when assignments and exams are very important to maintain or improve grades. The following are suggestions of positive activities your chapter can do to prepare yourselves and the members awaiting initiation for the initiation ceremony (these activities can be done at any point during your new member education period).

1. Mock Initiation - Have the new members spend some time creating what they think the initiation ceremony will be like. Instruct them that after the time given they will be asked to present their “mock initiation” to members of the chapter or new member education period. Not only will this encourage the new member class to begin thinking about what they will experience, but it should also serve as a good tool for you to assess the success of the new member education period. If the new members do not develop a portrayal that is at least consistent with the types of messages conveyed in the ceremony, you must re-evaluate your program and make changes in the future.
2. Watch the movie Kingdom of Heaven, First Knight or Ivanhoe.
Discuss the following questions:
 - How does this film reflect on knighthood?
 - Do you feel this is an accurate portrayal of ancient knighthood?
 - What virtues of knighthood and chivalry did our founders desire to perpetuate.
 - Do you feel chivalry exists today, if so in what form?
3. Watch the movie Braveheart, We Were Soldiers or Gladiator.
Discuss the following questions:
 - What does the film say about duty, honor and sacrifice?
 - Do you feel people today are as committed to a cause as were the main characters?
 - What leadership styles were portrayed?
4. Take the new member class to a church or worship service. Discuss our values and whether your chapter portrays any of those values.
5. Charter Examination - Examine your chapter’s charter. Ask the new members to describe what they say. Ask specific questions such as:
 - What does this piece of paper mean to you?

- How long ago was it given to our chapter?
 - What are you going to do to ensure that others get the chance to have the Kappa Alpha experience on our campus?
 - What surrounds the images? Why do you think a connected chain was chosen? How does that apply to our chapter?
 - Go through each image displayed and ask the new members what they think it means.
6. Candle Pass - Schedule a candle pass where all the members of the chapter can be present. The event should also be scheduled somewhere where it is completely dark. Begin by putting all the actives in an outside circle and all the new members on the inside circle. Then have one member light his candle and explain to the chapter why they joined KA, why KA is important to them, or what they have gotten out of KA. When he is done, he lights another brother's candle. This continues until all the actives' candles are lit, and then each new member gets his turn and joins the circle when finished. Once everyone has lit their candles, the leader of the pass should point out the significance behind the brightening of the light. Now ask the seniors who are active to distinguish their candles, then the juniors, then the sophomores. When only the new members' candles are lit explain that it is now their duty to spread the light and seek out others who can help spread our message.
 7. Have the new members read Secret Thoughts of a Ritual and discuss as a group.
 8. Get the new members together and read *Psalm of Life (found in the Appendix). Facilitate a discussion on what the poem means and how it can relate to Kappa Alpha Order and our teachings, but also to each individual member.
 9. Get the new members together and read Ecclesiastes 11:7 – 12:14. Facilitate a discussion on what the verses mean and how they relate to Kappa Alpha Order and our teachings, and also to each individual member. Other verses to explore; Joshua 1:5, Psalm 37:25, Isaiah 42:16, Psalm 9:17-18.
 10. Gavel Pass - Conduct a final meeting and at the conclusion bringing in the members of the active chapter. Replace voluntary comments with a gavel pass. While holding the gavel have each member share what KA and the chapter means to them, why they joined or why they think others should desire to become KAs, they would then pass the gavel to the next member and so on until everyone had shared.
 11. Guest Speakers - Bring in alumni or older members of the chapter to discuss what KA has meant to them and what they hope each new member will gain from his experience. Look for persons who have had good experiences and understand the intent of having them speak leading up to initiation.

Dear Professor (insert name),

On behalf of the (insert Greek designation) chapter of Kappa Alpha Order, we wanted to extend to you this letter to demonstrate our commitment to excellence in all aspects of campus life. The academic performance and development of our members is very important, not only to them as individuals, but to us an organization. It is our goal to make better students and men of each and every member of our chapter.

In an effort to ensure he is living up to his academic commitments to the institution, his parents and more importantly himself, I would ask that you please alert myself or other chapter leaders if his attendance, attitude or academic performances are failing to live up to the standards set by both you and this institution. In addition, from time to time we may ask for (insert student's name) to obtain a progress report for which he will be provided a form. If you could please complete it at your convenience, it will allow us to monitor his efforts and afford us the opportunity to better advise him on study habits and time management if necessary.

Thank you so much for your consideration and education of the students here at (insert name of school). I hope that (insert student's name) will be as much of a pleasure to have in the classroom as he is to have in our fraternity.

Sincerely,

Time Management Tips

These tips can help you to better manage your time and become a stronger student. Time management can be a daunting task, but with some hard work anyone can master their schedule. Some things will work better than others, so feel free to try new methods to ensure you are the most effective student you can be.

1. Make a "To Do" List Every Day.

Put things that are most important at the top and do them first. If it's easier, use a planner to track all of your tasks. And don't forget to reward yourself for your accomplishments.

2. Rest up and work out.

Sufficient sleep and exercise will lead to improved focus and concentration which can help you get your work done in less time.

3. It's Okay to Say "No."

If your boss asks you to work on a Thursday night and you have a final exam the next morning, realize that it's okay to say no. Keep your short- and long-term priorities in mind.

4. Find the Right Time.

You'll work more efficiently if you figure out when you do your best work. For example, if your brain handles math better in the afternoon, don't wait to do it until late at night.

5. Keep Things in Perspective.

Setting goals that are unrealistic sets you up for failure. While it's good to set high goals for yourself, be sure not to overdo it. Set goals that are difficult yet reachable.

6. Break things up.

Break large, time-consuming tasks into smaller tasks. Work on them a few minutes at a time until you have completed them.

7. Practice the 10 minute rule.

Tackle dreaded tasks over time by putting in 10 minutes of work at a time. By breaking down the task you may find it easier to get through.

8. Don't Waste Time Agonizing

Dwelling on a task never accomplished anything. Instead of agonizing and procrastinating, just get it done.

Psalm of Life

Tell me not, in mournful numbers,
Life is but an empty dream!-
For the soul is dead that slumbers
And things are not what they seem.

Life is real! Life is earnest!
And the grave is not its goal;
Dust thou art, to dust returnest,
Was not spoken of the soul.

Not enjoyment, and no sorrow,
Is our destined end or way;
But to act, that each tomorrow
Find us farther than today.

Art is long, and Time is fleeting,
And our hearts, though stout and brave,
Still, like muffled drums, are beating
Funeral marches to the grave.

In the world's broad field of battle
In the bivouac of life,
Be not like dumb, driven cattle!
Be a hero in the strife!

Trust no Future, howe'er pleasant!
Let the dead Past bury its dead!
Act,-act in the living Present!
Heart within, and God o'erhead!

Lives of great men all remind us
We can make our lives sublime,
And, departing, leave behind us
Footprints on the sands of time.

Footprints, that perhaps another,
Sailing o'er life's solemn main,
A forlorn and shipwrecked brother,
Seeing, shall take heart again.

Let us then be up and doing,
With a heart for any fate;
Still achieving, still pursuing
Learn to labor and to wait.
